CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 250 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.6in. Welcome back to Rivers Run, a quiet little town in the Northwoods. The chief of police and his wife have convinced Rosa, and her son, Mateo, to leave their crime ridden neighborhood in Houston and move north, where they can relax and enjoy life. Mateo will have a new school, and Rosa will have the opportunity to start her own business. As Rosa and Mateo settle in, they begin to make new friends. Mateo befriends Doc Marican, a grandfather figure who teaches the young boy about wildlife. He also makes friends with Brenna, the daughter of one of Rivers Runs affluent families. Their friendship grows into something special, prompting Mateo to ask her to the prom. Rosa has some reservations about the young girl, but reluctantly agrees to Mateos plans. Rosa herself is fast making friends. Tom O'Reilly, an attractive single man whom she had met the summer before while on vacation in the area, manages to make her rethink her decision that she doesnt need a man in her life. But when she finds out that he and Letty,...
