Excerpt: . . . teachers, and students. Our proposal will allow states and districts to reserve funds to carry out such activities as ( i ) supporting and complementing the adoption of rigorous standards and high-quality assessments, and supporting teachers in teaching to those standards; ( ii ) supporting the more effective use of data to identify local needs and improve student outcomes; ( iii ) improving capacity at the state and district levels to support the effective use of technology to improve instruction; ( iv ) coordinating with early learning programs to improve school readiness; or ( v ) carrying out effective family engagement strategies. Districts will be required to set aside a portion of funds under this program to improve student performance in high-need schools, by implementing effective school improvement strategies and carrying out strategies to ensure the equitable distribution of effective teachers and school leaders. Reward districts will be allowed flexibility around this...
