In this Catalogue the titles of 138 papers are given. In the ten following years this number must have been very considerably augmented. Dr. Schmidt was admitted an Honorary Doctor of the University of Bonn, on the occasion of the foundation festival held in 1868, and he was elected an Associate of the Royal Astronomical Society on January 9, 1874. He continued in the full activity of his labours, and retained his character for acuteness for observing to the last. The same number of the Astronomische Nachrichten which contains the results of his last observations of variable stars, made during the year 1883, also gives his obituary notice. Dr. Schmidt had attended a reception at the German Embassy, at Athens, on the evening of Wednesday, February 6, 1884, apparently in his usual health. On the morning of February 7 he was...
