By Jayson Morris

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .If you appreciate books about basketball then you will love this unofficial biography of Russell Westbrook. It covers Westbrook's journey from a struggling college player to one of the NBA greats. The story of this amazing superstar is one of the most inspiring basketball biographies you'll ever read. The book details Westbrook's childhood passion for basketball and his participation in high school and AAU athletic programs. It offers insight into his struggles at UCLA where Westbrook averaged just 3.5 points per game in his freshman year. Even though he faced many challenges on his path to greatness, Russell Westbrook held fast to the inspiration provided by Magic Johnson and other superstars. You'll read about his early NBA career, association with Kevin Durant, and numerous triple double performances. There have been many legendary basketball players, but the story of Russell Westbrook will make you want to cheer out loud as you read. Follow the life of this amazing young man off the court as the book discusses Westbrook's interest in fashion and his own line of designer sunglasses,...
