Address: Jacobs Pharmacy Company, 10 Marietta Street, Atlanta, Ga. front. The office of the Lieut. General of the Army and his staff is on the floor above the basement in the northeast portion of the building. The offices of the Secretaries of the three departments are on the second floor. The domed corridor and the headquarters of the army are vastly interesting. Under the jurisdiction of this department are the Washington Barracks, situated in a park of seventy acres, at the foot of Seventh Street, S. W. which may be inspected daily; the rifle range, with daily practice; hospital, battery drill grounds with daily practice; the Army Medical Museum, containing 27, 000 specimens of interest to surgical and medical students, and microscopists, and the library of 150, 000 volumes; the Weather Bureau, where the forecasts are determined and where the students of meteorology will find much that is new and valuable; also the Fort Myer cavalry station where military drills and sham battles may be witnessed. The library of the War Department contains 20, 000 volumes. The library of the State Department contains 50, 000 volumes. Here are to be found the original draft f the Declaration of Independence and the desk it was written on, Washingtons...
